Where do mining rights, permission to occupy and long-term leasehold agreements fall on the food chain?

Holders of mining rights are confronted with claims to surface rights from communities holding permissions to occupy.

Live, love, laugh, but don't use your electronic signature when selling your house

In recent years we have seen momentous breakthroughs in the realm of technology that have significantly enhanced many facets of life. The same is true in the context of commercial transactions, which have been expedited through the use of electronically generated agreements. Parties, thousands of miles apart, can instantly conclude binding contracts without having to physically meet.
