Law and disorder: Sense check on litigation

Voltaire famously said that "Common sense is not so common" and there are some court stories that support that. Like the infamous McDonald's coffee matter in 1994 where Stella Liebeck, having been burned by a cup of spilled coffee, claimed that McDonald's coffee was defective and more likely to cause serious injury than coffee served at any other establishment. She was awarded $2,9 million in a jury trial.
