CDH PROMOTES 8 NEW DIRECTORS

Leading business law firm Cliffe Dekker Hofmeyr (CDH) is excited to announce eight new Director promotions in 2017 as it continues to expand its expertise in key areas.

"We pride ourselves on our ability to handle the most complex legal matters and this is only possible thanks to the dedication and commitment of our specialist lawyers," says CDH CEO Brent Williams.

The firm's Real Estate practice welcomes Bronwyn Brown as a new Director. She began her career as a Candidate Attorney at CDH in 2009, was appointed as an Associate in January 2011 and was promoted to Senior Associate in 2013. Bronwyn has been involved in various high-level property matters, including commercial and residential property transfers and bonds, notarial contracts, sectional title developments, renewable energy projects and property related due diligence investigations.

Kirsten Caddy, a BCom and LLB Cum Laude graduate of the University of Pretoria, started her career in the High Court litigation arena, where she gained experience in a variety of general litigation matters. She has worked extensively with a wide range of clients both locally and internationally and has also obtained a post-graduate diploma in advanced labour law with distinction at the University of South Africa. She has been promoted to Director in CDH's Employment law practice.

New Director Neil Comte was appointed as an Associate in the firm's Knowledge Management practice in August 2013 and became a Senior Associate in January 2015. The focus of his position is on firm-wide projects driving quality, learning and development in the firm and professional support. He also coordinates the firm's in-house Practical Legal Training course for Candidate Attorneys and in-house Practice Management Training course.

The firm's award-winning Corporate and Commercial practice, meanwhile, welcomes Justine Krige as a new Director. Her experience includes mergers and acquisitions, due diligences, the formation, structuring and restructuring of business entities and general corporate and commercial law, including consumer law, with a focus on the hospitality and leisure and tourism sectors.
